

BEST PRACTICES

The institution promoting its practices through the activities of N.S.S. which add value to the individual students as well as the group of students. The institution have two active units of N.S.S. namely Unit-1 & Unit-2 which are governed under the chairmanship of the principal as well as the programme officer of Unit-1 Dr. B. Ravidas and Unit-2 Sri A.K. Mishra.

Both the units are actively involved themselves along with their volunteer in several activities within the campus and outside the campus. Both the units individually as well as in collaboration celebrate several Diwas and jyanti of man of Letters. Such programmes add human values among the volunteers as well the spectators. The volunteers did not stop at the juncture. They visits the villages of surrounding areas along with their programme officer and sensitise the hamlet dwellers of the village about the cleanliness, evils of social drama, demerits of using alcohol which is a common habitual addiction in the area.

In this connection the N.S.S. unit -2 adopted a village 'manda tar' at giddi hazaribag district and 'Chikor' by unit -I in Ramgarh District both the unit succeeded in enhancing the living standard of the villagers our volunteers as well as efficient coordinator left no stone unturned to educate the villagers about the harm of hazardous substance which they used in their daily life. During the Covid Pandemic without any fear the volunteers of N.S.S. as well as the co-ordinator move some of the villages in surrounding areas and educate the people regarding the preventive measures of pandemic. They also distribute the facemask, sanitizer and other necessary items among the villagers. Time to time with the help of Government agency our volunteers in the leadership of the programme officers distribute several kinds of medicine Like al bandzed, Calcium tablets etc among the villagers.

The institution reflects its best practices through "UNNAT BHARAT ABHIYAN "under this Abhiyan the institution has adopted the five villages of Patratu Block namely

1. Sudi
2. Labga
3. Rasda
4. Sanki
5. Kurse

under the co-ordinator of this abhiyan Dr. B. Ravidas.

A survey of the said villages has been conducted under the guidance of the Principal of the college by Dr. B. Ravidas along with some teachers and volunteers. The survey team of the college made a Baseline Household Survey at Grampanchay level as well as village level. Our sole interest regarding this Abhiyan is to enhance the economic as well as social condition of the villages.

The institution promoting its best practices through these activities and simultaneously discharge its social responsibility along with adding human values among the people who comes under this ambit area.
